Department of Public Safety

Mott Community College

Welcome Fall Semester!

The Mott Community College Department of Public Safety works hard every day helping you make your future possible.

You will see us on campus providing access to buildings and rooms and on general patrol. But when events take you off your path, call us! We can help with:

- > On-campus escort service
- > Lost and found items
- > Unlocking your vehicle
- > Air up your tires
- > Jump start of your vehicle
- > Locating Handicap Parking
- > Emergency Medical Assistance

We are located at Presidential Court & Gorman Drive, several mini stations throughout the main campus and at 4 extension centers to provide police assistance with any of the following:

- > Crime reports
- > Accident reports
- > Criminal investigations
- > Parking enforcement
- > Domestic violence assistance
- > Crime prevention presentations

Put our number into your phone today (810) 762-0222! Our office is open 24 hours every day and staffed with professional and licensed officers.

We Are Ready to Assist YOU!
