 Please complete this form in ink pen only.

Students may request a Tuition Appeal due to extenuating circumstances such as military deployment, certain medical conditions, and/or family related reasons, include change in employment. By submitting a tuition appeal you are requesting Mott Community College (MCC) to remove your courses from your transcript and adjust tuition charges and fees. Filing an appeal does not relieve your current obligation to MCC. You are responsible for all charges assessed on your account pending a decision on your appeal. An appeal committee will review the appeals and provide a written response within thirty (30) days.

You do not qualify for an appeal under these circumstances:

- Your issue is an academic complaint as these are handled through the Academic Division.
- You fail to drop your classes within the add/drop period outlined in the class schedule.
- Your non-attendance and non-payment are not acceptable reasons for a Tuition Appeal.
- Your request is based on acceptance into another school.
- Your request is based on incarceration.
- Your account is in collections; you must file a dispute with the Collection Agency.
- It has been over 75 days from the last day of the semester.

Additional Guidelines:

- Printed/published material, such as registration forms, guide sheets, class schedule information, web directions and the catalog take precedence over verbal information
- Students receiving any type of Financial Aid, including loans, grants and scholarships, should be aware that their account will be reviewed to determined how much financial aid they have earned. Mott Community College will not adjust any tuition charges if aid is earned. Rules and regulations governing Federal Financial Aid programs cannot be waived through tuition appeal or under any other circumstances.
- Students receiving any type of third party funding should be aware that all funding will be returned to the issuing party i.e. Michigan Works, AmeriCorps, Michigan Indian Tuition Waiver and Veteran Tuition Assistance.
- Students that made payment by credit/debit, cash or check on their account and will be refunded only tuition and fees within 7-10 business days of approval.
- Failure to provide adequate documentation at the time of submission may result in denial of your appeal.

Submit your Tuition Appeal Application to the Office of Student Services.
